

Inclusive Improv

an accessible forum exploring creativity through collective interaction

Purpose

The Inclusive Improv exists to promote and facilitate sonic experimentation primarily through improvisation and performance practice. We seek to achieve this aim by;

- Promoting performances by experimental artists
- Arranging public improvisation performance opportunities
- Collaborative Software tool development
- Documenting ongoing activities and practice

Formation

The Inclusive Improv was established July 2007 and has promoted numerous experimental performance, curated monthly improv sessions and established the Week(end) of Speakers now in its third year. Full details can be found online at the Inclusive Improv Wiki www.inclusiveimprov.co.uk. In April 2010 the Inclusive Improv was awarded a grant from the PRS for Music Foundation to continue its activities which had hitherto operated without finance.
